Every individual is blessed with a unique gift, but mere recognition is not enough. Expression is a key, for it's often the voice of the inarticulate that resonates the most. Talent not only enhances the learning process, but also refines intelligence, and build character and shapes personality. We are fortunate to have among us many exceptional DIP Sites who possess incredible flair waiting to be celebrated.

ACROSTIC POEM WORD SENIOR

Seeing myself in a tie, at an age where I can inspire the little lights
Every single step I took, is a journey to look back
Now I started to realize the hardships of life
Inspire and aspire, and do stuff that I like in this short span of time, meticulously planning all my life only to realize "you can't predict the weather"
 as it might rain or shine
Open sky yet an overloaded mind, growing up wanting to be a successful alumnus Rooting for all my classmates to be happy in their lives, because we all cried, laughed, and had fun together like it was our very first time

- Nikita Donamayi (XI A)

SIKKIM, NATURE'S PARADISE

In the north of India, Sikkim lies,
 a beautiful place,
 where the clouds move with grace.

Gangtok in all its beauty,
 It's pristine waterfalls and parks,
 it's monasteries and temples too,
 somethings one must view.

Home to major temples,
 and many roses,
 the southern capital Namchi,
 is a place you must view.

Pelling is next on the list,
 with its lovely lakes,
 India's first skywalk is situated here,
 to walk on it, you shouldn't fear.

Sikkim's culture,
 and the kind-hearted people,
 and the stunning art,
 give Sikkim a place in my heart.

Let's give this state
 the love that it deserves, by putting it on our dream destination lists.

- Anushka Chahera (VII C)

THOUGHTS

Thought I'm real
 But turns out I'm pretending.
 Playing different roles
 Reading different scripts.

Though I was the only one
 But a mere pawn in his gaze.
 With no future and past,
 And a present that never lasts.

- Ananya Paunikar (X B)

जिंदगी का खजाना

जिंदगी के खजाने की खोज में
 मैं आगे बढ़ता हूँ,
 कभी चलता हूँ, तो कभी रुकता हूँ
 खजाने की मैं खोज में
 कुछ पन्नों को पलटता हूँ,
 कभी चलता हूँ, तो कभी रुकता हूँ

कुछ पन्ने ऐसे होते हैं
 जो जीवन का सबक सिखाते हैं,
 उनसे मेरी जीवन चलता है,
 उसी से मैं चलता हूँ

कुछ ऐसे पन्ने मिलते हैं,
 जो काफी हसीन होते हैं,
 उन्हें देखकर मैं मुस्कराता हूँ
 और आगे बढ़ जाता हूँ

कुछ समय बाद मैं उन हसीन
 पन्नों के बारे में सोचता हूँ,
 या तो वे हसीन रहते हैं या तो वे मर जाते हैं
 ये सब सोचकर मैं अपना कदम बढ़ाता हूँ

अपना दुःख छुपाता हूँ
 या तो खुशहाली मनाता हूँ।
 कुछ ऐसे पन्ने आते हैं जिनको मैं
 अपने शब्दों में बयान नहीं कर सकता हूँ, कदम से कदम मिलाता हूँ और उन्हें
 भूलाकर यूँ ही आगे बढ़ जाता हूँ

लेकिन फिर मेरे मन के मंथन में
 एक बात आती है,
 की जो पन्ने मेरे उनकी
 ये दशा क्यों हो जाती है।
 इन बातों को सोचते - सोचते मैं जीवन
 का आकलन करने लगा,
 और कदम बढ़ा कर चलने लगा,

इतने समय में मैं अपनी जीवन का
 मकसद भूल गया था,
 और मन-ही-मन में चूर-चूर हो गया था।
 तभी भगवान ने मुझे जगाया,
 जीवन का मकसद बताया,
 और मैंने फिर जीवन की खोज
 में अपना कदम बढ़ाया।

A STORY THAT EMBODIES THE SPIRIT OF LEADERSHIP

Remembering Harsha : The Forgotten Vardhana Ruler of India.

In the vibrant kingdom of Thanesar, a young prince named Harsha ascended to the throne amidst tumultuous times. His elder brother's untimely death thrust him into a position of power he hadn't anticipated. At just 16 years old, Harsha faced the daunting task of not only governing but also consolidating his realm.

Harsha's rule began with challenges. The kingdom was beset by internal dissent and external threats. Yet, instead of succumbing to the pressures, Harsha chose to rise above them. He embarked on a journey to unite his people, forging alliances and winning hearts through his charisma and determination.

Driven by a deep sense of justice and a passion for the welfare of his subjects, Harsha initiated reforms that aimed to alleviate the hardships faced by commoners. He introduced policies to promote agriculture and trade, fostering prosperity across his realm. His administration became known for its efficiency and fairness, earning him admiration and loyalty from his people.

But Harsha's vision extended beyond governance. A patron of arts and culture, he recognized the transformative power of literature and scholarship. In his court, poets, scholars, and artists flourished. Harsha himself was a prolific writer, composing verses that reflected his love for wisdom and beauty.

Yet, it was Harsha's compassion that truly defined his reign. Despite his stature as a king, he was known for his humility and accessibility. He would often venture into villages, listening to the concerns of his subjects firsthand. His ability to empathize endeared him to even the most marginalized in society, earning him the title of a benevolent ruler.

Harsha's journey was not without its trials. He faced formidable adversaries and moments of doubt. Yet, each challenge only strengthened his resolve. His courage in adversity became a source of inspiration for his people, who rallied around him in times of need.

As Harsha's reign progressed, his influence expanded far beyond the borders of his kingdom. His legacy of cultural richness and political stability became a beacon for future generations. Even after his passing, Harsha's name continued to evoke reverence and admiration among historians and storytellers alike.

In the annals of Indian history, Harshavardhana stands as a testament to the transformative power of leadership driven by compassion and vision. His story reminds us that true greatness lies not in conquest alone but in the ability to uplift and inspire others. Harsha's legacy endures as a timeless example of how one individual's courage and conviction can shape the destiny of a nation.

The true essence of leadership lies in the ability to inspire and empower others to reach their full potential while working towards a shared vision.

IMPOSTER SYNDROME

Imposter syndrome is very common in teenagers. Though it is not a mental disorder it is a great challenge. Imposter syndrome is a feeling when one isn't worthy enough, constantly needing to improve. Impostor syndrome clashes with the need to be perfect, which is impossible. People often neglect their achievements and the hurdles they crossed in order to accomplish a task, filling them with dissatisfaction and focusing on things they lack rather than the things they have.

People often fail to give themselves credits, unable to see how much they have grown over the years. They constantly live in the past and believe you are who you were two years ago, whereas in reality you have grown beyond your expectations. A mistake doesn't define a person but the lesson they learn from it does. People often tend to feel unworthy of gifts and are stuck to the thought that they need to act in a certain way to keep their loved ones and friends close to them.

To overcome these thoughts, mindset shifts are needed, for example thinking about accomplishing a certain goal should make you feel elevated, allowing yourself to feel good and then thinking about improvements. Try SWOT analysis, write about your strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats to help in sorting out the areas you actually lack in. Making a chart of all the achievements, no matter how small or big, helps one to see how far they've come and how much more there is to achieve. Imposter syndrome can be difficult to tackle but it is time to unleash that true self of yours and live without a worry because you are loved and worthy of all the good in this world.

THE BEAUTY OF MAHARASHTRA

The state of Maharashtra, vast and diverse,
home to the hills of Lonavala,
and Mahabaleshwar's strawberries.

Home of celebrities and Bollywood, full of rush and chaos too,
where the Gateway of India and Chowpatty reside, Mumbai is my home that I like.

In the western region of Maharashtra,
Pune lies,
Where you can find tall skyscrapers and some of India's greatest minds.

A vacation spot for flamingoes,
a place where misal pav is loved,
the city of lakes,
Welcome to Thane!

Festivals celebrated with a bang,
Ganesh chaturthi and Gudi Padwa,
Full of sweets and treats,
as well as happy families.

Shivaji Maharaj the great,
born and raised in this state,
he fought every invader in sight,
he valiantly fought every fight.

Navari sarees
and pretty jewellery
Spicy foods and tasty sweets,
Maharashtra specialises in everything.

There's so much more to explore,
so many stories in store,
to know which,
Maharashtra is the place where you have to go.
